

Troop 64 Committee Meeting
November 17, 2008

In attendance: Bill Kostelka, Diane Fuhrman, Jill Frost, Dora Clark, Susan Malloy, Carlene Dawson, Ackie LeDuff, Carl and Cindy Qualls, Brian Leo, Randy Hamilton, Fran Stutts, and Letha Courtney.

There are currently 29 active scouts in our troop and we are in the process of our rechartering. Bill now needs to forward the paperwork to our Charter Organization Head for approval (Rev. Dietzel).

Our annual spaghetti dinner will be held January 8. We will need to get tickets printed mid-January. Jill will make sure posters are up at the church and it gets in the church newsletter. Terry will check with his contact at Gatti's to see if our wholesale deal will be available again this year.

TREASURER'S REPORT/Popcorn Kernel: Our troop balance prior to popcorn sales was $681.78. $15 was reimbursed to Diane for materials for making cards for the Nursing Home residents.

We sold $4,813 in popcorn - $1,925 was troop profit—of that $1,426.50 went into indiv. scout accts. and $498.70 went into the troop acct. All but 7 scouts participated. Dan, Conner and Zack won the prizes in our drawing for the top sellers.

SCOUTMASTER REPORT: The troop leadership planning meeting will be held Dec. 6. at 10:00 a.m. The troop scribe, patrol leaders, SPL and ASPL will plan for the next year.

Retirement home visits are tentatively planned for Dec. 14 around 2:00.

Monday, December 8 from 6:00-8:00 we will have our troop Christmas party at the base bowling alley. Bring $10 for bowling/shoes/food and a $10 gift for exchanging.

Nov. 22-25 Josh and Sheppard are planning on attending Camp Turkey.

Adopt-a-road was held last weekend. 10-12 boys participated.

Emergency Preparedness Camp will be held at Garland April 17-19.

Brad has found a new web site which will allow a more restricted access to our information and allow boys to chat freely with each other and access information.

Iditarod: upcoming—there will be competitions but no sled.

TRAINING COORDINATOR: no report—out for birthing!

QUARTERMASTER: no report

NEW BUSINESS: Dec. 15 we will hold our open house for prospective WeBeLo's. Each patrol will be in charge of a scout related activity. Refreshments will be served.

Cindy wanted to remind everyone if they brought shoeboxes for Samaritan's Purse she can take them tonight. If any boys want to help with this cause they can come to First Baptist Saturday from 9-12.

Meeting adjourned.
